Dear Partners in Learning,

As we enter the holiday season, I wanted to take a moment to express my sincere gratitude. Thank you for letting this amazing teaching team, support staff and myself, be apart of helping you to create responsible, caring, citizens. We all take this responsibility very seriously. Personally, I consider it one of the most generous gifts that can be given to someone.

This time of year can easily get people caught up in doing more and buying more things. Reading to your child, having them help you make cookies, looking at Christmas lights, letting them help prepare the holiday meal, buying gifts for families who don't have anything extra, or just sharing past family holiday traditions are some of the greatest gifts that can be given to your child.

Thank you for letting us have the gift of teaching your children. Thank you for the kindness and generosity you show our school everyday throughout the year. I hope you have a very special and safe holiday break.

Reminder

Please do not send student to school when they are sick. They must be fever free and symptom free, without the use of any medication, for 24 hours. We are sanitizing the classrooms daily, but you can also help us by keeping home any students who show symptoms of illness. Thank you for your continued support.
